FIVE KEY CRITERIA FOR SELECTING MISSIONS

• Bold, inspirational with wide societal relevance
• A clear direction: targeted, measurable and time-bound
• Ambitious but realistic research and innovation actions
• Cross-disciplinary, cross-sectoral and cross-actor innovation
• Multiple, bottom-up solutions
• Should there be public consultations about new missions?

• Call for feedback on research and innovation missions: general public and stakeholders can give their feedback on the Mazzucato report and upload their suggestions for research and innovation missions. Feedback until 3rd April
